SALUTATORY

We, the members of the 1958 graduating class, welcome you to our Commencement Exercises. We appreciate your presence--your kindly interest in being here to witness the presentation of our diplomas, the symbol of and reward for twelve momentous years.

We wish to thank you for guiding our steps through these years. You gave us advice and courage when we were in need of them. You have attempted to guide us in our steps to adulthood by pointing out to us the way in which a successful person must live. Our future is uncertain, and your guidance will give us the courage to strive for success.

Now, after your faithful years of teaching and protection, we shall endeavor to apply our knowledge in everything that we do.

The first step we must take is the finding of a place in life which best satisfies our aptitudes and desires. In order to do this, we must take advantage of the opportunities which are given to us. Of course, these opportunities will not come to us. We must earn them.

After our adjustment in the walk of life which we choose, we must next strive for a successful, enjoyable, and beneficial life. In order to achieve this kind of life, we must be ambitious and do a little more than is expected of us each day. The accomplishments which we make should be completed to the best of our abilities.

During the remaining years of our lives, we shall thank each and every one of you for giving us our motto, "The Beginning--Not The End." We shall apply this motto to our thinking when we meet disappointments and problems in our lives.

Diane Roberts

VALEDICTORY

Greetings all---- and farewell!

Well-known paths, halls, classrooms, grounds----farewell!
We shall no longer follow the familiar trails nor see the same landmarks. Our paths will be in different directions leading us to new and unexplored areas. Farewell to that which we have loved----but, we eagerly greet the new!

Goodbye to Gomer High! Goodbye to our teachers who have trained us for our future. Their willingness--their very eagerness--to help, far beyond the call of duty, has been our greatest inspiration. They will live always in our memories.

The future anxiously awaits us! Its manifest problems are up to us to adequately meet. We already have a fine start because of the competent preparation we have received from our parents, our teachers, and our spirited classmates. This training, together with our own individual make-up, will help make a new and exciting future in which we hope to be creative and constructive.

That is, we hope to be a success. But what is success? To many people it means different things. To some, it is wealth. To others, it is being held in high esteem. Many are content with just a happy home. Perhaps success can best be defined as making the most of our abilities and being happy in what we are doing.

So many people have said that opportunities for the future are few, that there will be no new inventions, that all discoveries have been made. --What about the very recent developments of satellites and space travel? Surely this should prove to us that we have only begun to invent; we have only begun to discover! ----Our opportunities have no limit! ----Our faith in the future has no bounds. We walk into the future with eagerness, with inquisitive minds, and with faith in ourselves, determined to make the most of our own individual aptitudes.

HISTORY

On September 3, 1946, sixteen little angels entered the Pearly Gates of Gomer High School, only to find twelve years of hard labor awaiting them. Under the six watchful eyes of Miss Griffiths, (two in her glasses, and two in the back of her head) we started to learn the three R's. Carol Sue Metzger and John Smith were chosen to act as the crown bearers for the Halloween Carnival. September 6, 1948, finds us in the third grade. Among the things we remember most about this year were our love notes, which were found by Mrs. Beougher. The fourth grade was much the same. September 6, 1950, is the date on which we entered the fifth grade with Mrs. Daughtry as our teacher. During these years we began preparing for High School. We started our first club, each eager to become an officer. We felt the blow of discipline in "places" where it hurt, when we would have to go outside the room and get our hands cracked, or stand in the coat-room. In the fall of '52, Mrs. Jones took on the great task of leading us, and during our eighth year Mr. Ackerman was our advisor.

We started our Freshman year with Mr. Sandy as our class advisor. This was the year when we were finally promoted to the Study Hall. Our class officers were Carol Foulkes, President; Carol Metzger, Vice President; Dorothy Micha, Secretary; and Terry Brenneman, Treasurer. Carol Metzger and Dorothy Micha were elected Junior High Cheerleaders out of our class. Carol Metzger and Tom Frysinger were selected as Arch Bearers for the Halloween Carnival.

Our Sophomore year started under the guidance of Mrs. Bowers. We elected the following officers: Terry Brenneman, President; John Metzger, Vice President; Diane Roberts, Secretary; and Sue Evans, Treasurer. We entertained the school with a one act play, "Getting Gracie Graduated." Carol Sue and Dorothy Jane were elected cheerleaders from our class. Dorothy Jane and Dave Logan were selected as attendants for the Halloween Carnival.

We started our Junior year under the supervision of Mrs. Romaker. We elected the following officers: Tom Frysinger, President; Dave Sherrick, Vice President; Sue Evans, Secretary; and Diane Roberts, Treasurer. Carol Foulkes and Diane Roberts represented our class at the Ethan Allen Honor Society Banquet. Carol Metzger and Dorothy Micha were elected cheerleaders. Terry Brenneman and Diane Roberts were chosen to reign as King and Queen of the Halloween Carnival. We presented our first profitable play, "Bolts and Nuts," directed by Mrs. Gladys Romaker.

The last year of our school life, and the most important, contained many activities. Our Senior Class Play, "One Foot In Heaven," was directed by Rev. Oliver Thomas. We elected the following class officers: Terry Brenneman, President; Tom Frysinger, Vice President; Diane Roberts, Secretary; and Carol Foulkes, Treasurer. Dorothy Micha and Carol Metzger led the cheering section again this year. Tom Frysinger, Terry Brenneman, Carol Foulkes, and Diane Roberts became life members of the Ethan Allen Honor Society. Terry, Tom, and Carol took the Senior Scholarship Test in Lima. We have some firsts added to our names. We are the first Gomer Seniors to wear caps and gowns at graduation; we are the first Gomer Senior Class to edit a padded annual; and we are the first to stream-line the Commencement Exercises. We also promoted several new money making efforts during the year, a Pancake-Sausage Supper, a Rummage Sale, a Scrap Drive, a Bake Sale, and a Concession Stand at the baseball tournaments. The Juniors entertained us at the Junior-Senior Prom in the school cafeteria on May 16th. We enjoyed the gala affair very much, Juniors. The members of The '58' class who have been together for the twelve years are: Dave Sherrick, Diane Roberts, Tom Frysinger, Rhea Feaster, Leah Feaster, Carol Sue Metzger, Dorothy Micha, Sue Evans, and John Metzger.

Now we are looking forward to Graduation and the Alumni.

And last but not least, "W A S H I N G T O N."

PROPHECY

Well, here it is, May 28th, the year 1968. Diane and I are just ready to board the Helio-B-100 that flies through the air with the speed of light. It is just a new invention and we have consented to be the first to try it out. We were permitted to choose our destination and we decided on Russia, where our good friend and old classmate, Michael B. Roeder, is the U. S. Ambassador.

Well, we're ready to go so we'll push the button. --We're here already!! --But look! That isn't the Embassy. It looks like Africa with all those trees and monkeys. There's a lot of black people dancing around a pot with a fire under it. Hark!! Who's that in the pot? Why none other than one of our dear classmates, Dave Logan. We'll certainly have to do something about that! We fly our Helio-B-100 over to the pot and pull Dave out. He thanks us for saving his life and explains that he is a missionary just come to Africa. We ask him to accompany us to Russia, and he is delighted.

We again push the button for Russia, but this isn't the Embassy either! It looks like a Fiesta Day in Mexico with the gaily colored dresses and happy people. --Say, who is that familiar looking person selling "tortillas" in that little cart? --Sure enough, there is another one of the graduates of dear Gomer High, Doug Davis. We talk to Doug, and tell him of our adventures. --He mentions that we must be sure to see the Bullfight. Rhea Feaster is the Star Matador. --What?! A matador? --We all decide to go to see her. --We purchase seats next to the box which Doug said is reserved for the guest of honor. The fight is to be dedicated to him. The reason is that he has written a marvelous best-seller book on "Mexico and the Mexican people." He is now a person of great renown. It is John A. Metzger. ----John sees us and comes over to speak with us. We congratulate him on his literary success.

We watch the fight. Then John and the rest of us talk with Rhea. She decides to come along with us. --We push the button, this time not really expecting to get to Russia. --We don't!! We land in Hawaii! We think this is the ideal chance to visit our Senior Vice President, Tom Frysinger, who is stationed here with the Air Force. ----We have to wait a while before we can see Captain Frysinger because, just now, he is trying out one of the new Double Supersonic Jetettes. ----Here he is now! He offers to take us all out and show us the sights. While sightseeing, we run into another old school chum, Vern Cellar! He is a barber on a big globe traveling passenger oceanliner. A very good way to see the world! Both men decide to come along with us on our trip to the Embassy.

We again step into the Helio-B-100, wondering if we will, this time, get to Russia. We press the button. --We're in Australia! We decide to see a baseball game, the Championship of all Australian baseball. The teams are the Australian Wolves and the Australian Bobcats. We are just getting settled with our refreshments when we see the coach of the Australian Bobcats. We can hardly believe our eyes because it is another of our classmates, Dorothy Micha. ---Of course the Bobcats win! --We congratulate and talk to Dorothy. We learn that she is also teaching in a big University.

Dorothy tells us about another of our classmates, Carol Metzger, who is nearby. She is the head of a huge hospital which has become very famous for it's research on "hypo-cheratauseshis," a dreaded disease. Carol and Dorothy both decide to continue the trip with us.

Our next stop is again way off course--back to the States. It is California, and whom do we see but that new young movie star, (another Elvis, they call him), and old friend, Dave Sherrick, who is, at this moment, sailing his boat. He takes us all for a ride, and we talk him into coming along with us.

Our next stop is New York where you all know Sue Evans is singing with the Metropolitan Opera. We get tickets to hear Sue in her starring role and enjoy it very much. We go backstage for a visit and Sue, also, decides to come along on our journey.

The next stop turns out to be India, where we find Rhea's twin, Leah. The two haven't seen each other for several years and are very happy about the reunion. Leah is now a missionary and doing great service. She thinks that she can spare a little time to come along on our "class reunion."

Well! What do you know!? --We have landed in Russia!---- And there on the steps to meet us is Ambassador Roeder. He had heard of our trip from U. S. officials who have been keeping track of the Helio-B-100 by an electronic system. He, too, wants to go for a ride in the (slightly crowded) Helio-B-100.

All of us want to go to the moon, so we push the button, and what do you know--that is where we land?!!! ----And whom do we see on the moon? Why none other than the Senior Class President, Terry Brenneman!! His occupation is growing and selling flowers. He says that the moon is wonderful for growing flowers and, believe me, you have never seen such beautiful specimen. However, he says that business is not yet too good because some people are still afraid to fly to the moon,

We all have a delicious picnic lunch on the moon and it turns out to be a wonderful reunion. We find that all of us have accomplished quite a bit in the last ten years.

It is time for us to go, so we take everyone back to their homes and work. Diane and I return to our posts in the U. S., Diane as a contented housewife and mother of eight, and I as an Airline Hostess for Helio Airlines.

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

On September 5, 1957, sixteen Jolly Juniors filled the usual seats in study hall. We started the year with one new pupil, Larry Pugsley, whom we were very glad to welcome to our class.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Romaker we elected the following officers:

President--Tom Schultz
Secretary--Judy Bailey

Vice President--Bob Evans
Treasurer--Patty Bowers

The first class party was held October seventh at the school. Pizza and dancing in the school cafeteria made up the evening's activities. Grades 9-12 held the Christmas party in the Cafeteria. Refreshments, games, and the opening of gifts were enjoyed by all.

Judy Bailey and Phil Yahn were chosen by the student body to be King and Queen for the Halloween Carnival.

For the second straight year the Class of "59" has won the class basketball tournament. We are very proud of our boys.

We entertained the Seniors for the Junior-Senior Prom in the school cafeteria. We hope they enjoyed it as much as we enjoyed working on it.

This year has been a good one for all of us. We started the year with thirteen members and ended with fourteen, having gained Jim Murray. Under the careful supervision of Mrs. Bowers, we chose the following officers:

President--Margie Metzger
Secretary--Jean Moore

Vice Pres.--Lloyd Edgecomb
Treas.--David Brenneman

We had our Fall Party in the Home Ec. Room, where food and games were enjoyed by all. We enjoyed the High School Christmas Party held in the Cafeteria. We were responsible for the food. We had our Spring Party at Darrell Long's home.

This year special honors were given to Margie Metzger, Senior High Cheerleader, and Jean Moore and David Brenneman, attendants for the Halloween Carnival.

We have thoroughly enjoyed this year and are looking forward to being Jolly Juniors.

FRESHMEN CLASS NEWS

We started the year with twenty-one classmates. In December we gained Bill Murray from Lafayette. We elected officers as follows:

President--Sandra Talbert
Vice President--Denny Humphreys
Secretary--Marilyn Crates
Treasurer--Carolyn Crates

We held our fall party at Calvin Brenneman's. We had an enjoyable time. Our Christmas Party was held with the rest of the high school. The Freshman Class sponsored a Spring Dance on April 11, which was enjoyed by all. We held our Spring Party at Calvin Brenneman's.

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

We entered the eighth grade with Miss Bowlus as our advisor. Under her guidance we elected the following officers: President--Bob Edgecomb; Vice President--Darwin Clupper; Secretary--Allen Brenneman; Treasurer--Jack Smith.

We had three parties, the fall party at Roger Brenneman's home, the Christmas party at Gary Lloyd's home and the spring party at Mary Evans' home.

We gained Jerry Neely.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

We started our first year in Junior High with eighteen members. With the help of Mrs. Jones, our advisor, we elected the following officers: President--Eddie Talbert; Vice President--Bruce Roberts; Secretary--Dick Beck; Treasurer--Dan Beck.

We had a program of parties; a weiner roast at Dads Club Building; a Christmas party in the school cafeteria; and a spring party at Bruce Robert's home. We did not lose any members this year nor did we gain any. There are still fifteen boys and four girls in our class.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

On Friday evening, May 16, the Junior class entertained the Seniors with a Dinner-Dance in the school cafeteria. The theme of the evening was "Out of This World". A delicious dinner of space food (which was really out of this world) was prepared by the Junior mothers and served by the Sophomore girls. During the dinner a large cake was presented to Denny Vandemark on the event of his eighteenth birthday. A program consisting of musical numbers, visions of Venus, and Moon Maidens followed the delicious dinner. Carol Sue Metzger and Terry Brenneman presided as King and Queen over the floor show. We were favored with excerpts of "Carousel" by Mrs. Romaker and Mrs. Robert Barnes. After the floor show, dancing and picture taking followed. Mid-way through the dance, moon juice and crater cookies were served. All in all, it was a very delightful and enjoyable evening. Thanks, Juniors!
